RICHARD REID,

OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR COUNTY JAILER,

AQUILLA B. LONG

We celebrate the "glorious 4th" by giving our readers an unusual amount of news to-day.

The Malley boys have been found not guilty of the murder of Jimmie Tramer, at New Haven, Conn. The trial was long and exciting.

Bro. Barnes has written a letter to the Interior-Journal expressing the conviction that he would never return to Kentucky.

The South Carolina Legislature met in extra session, June 27, to reconsider the State. It will adjourn

July 7th.

The Democrats of the Second Maine District have nominated D. H.

Tilling for Congress and the Republicans assert that it will be a dis-thing to elect him.

Judge Jos. H. Lewis was unanimously nominated for re-election as Judge of the Court of Appeals, by the Third Appellate District Convention, which met in Louisville, June 27th.

The Barksville Bulletin, edited by Miss Alice Matthews, is the latest addition to our list of State exchanges.

It is independent in all things, and is a new little six column sheet.

Dan O'Sullivan has been again promoted and is now city editor of the Courier-Journal. He is one of the brightest young journalists in the State and is rapidly advancing to the front rank of his profession.

Bro. Barnes says he has preached twice a day during the week, and three times on Sunday, for nearly five years and a half, and he expects to go on doing the same thing until he dies or until the second advent.

The case of Mrs. Mary Owens against Adjutant General Neckles, for making an indecent assault upon her, was tried at Frankfort last week and resulted in a hung jury. The popular opinion is that Mrs. Owens will be unable to sustain her charges.

The jury stood four for the plaintiff and eight for the defendant.

Bro. Barnes went from Frankfort to Dayton, O. The total number of his confessions in Frankfort was 1,253 including the Governor and most of the convicts in the penitentary. The Yeoman says he accomplished more in three weeks than in many years. He undoubtedly is the greatest evangelist in the world.

BOWDEN WINS.

Jas. H. Bowden, of Logan, Nominated for Judge of the First Superior Court District, on

The Fifth Ballot.

The semi-official account of the Superior Court Convention which met in this city, Friday, June 30, appears in another column. It will be seen that Judge Bowden received the nomination on the fifth ballot. The

CHARLES J. GUITEAU, THE

MURDERER OF GARFIELD,

DIES UPON THE SCAFF-

FOLD.

A Blasphemous Prayer, and a Ridiculous Doggerel read by the Assassin—He dies Praising

The Lord and keeps up his Courage to the last—The Good Dead Well Done.

The execution of Garfield's assassin took place in the United States jail at Washington, at 12:40 P. M., June 30, 1882. The good deed is done at last and the soul of the "inspired" assassin has gone into the eternity that he sent his victim.

We give a brief descriptive account of the execution.

The scene at the jail was a most remarkable one. Around the outside there was a gaping crowd, which was kept in order by a military detachment of police and soldiers and dragoons. Visitors, who were provided with the tickets as before given, were carefully scrutinized at the leading doors by three men, one of whom held a list and took down the names of all those who came in.

Guiteau had requested that he be hung at 12 sharp. The signal for this hour is usually the work-house whistle, near by. As some time was to be given to him, orders were sent not to blow the whistle until 12:20, but through some mistake the sharp sound rang about three minutes after

12. Shortly thereafter Warden

CRUCKER CAME TO THE GATE DOOR, and went into the cell. Just then the condemned man came out of the cell, where he was lying on a cot, with Dr. Hicks standing by him, and passed into another cell alongside.

The cell he entered was his old one with the window half buckled up.

James W. Woodward and S. W.

Johnson entered the cell shortly afterward and the preparations for the scaffold were begun. Then General Crucker came out of the cell at 12:15 showing considerable emotion. He stood conversing with Bob Strong a few moments, when the order was given to let back the passage way was made. The soldiers grounded arms, and the

STILLNESS OF DEATH

fell over the scene. Crucker walked out over the scaffold. A painful suspense of nearly five minutes elapsed, and the wooden door leading into the cell swung back on its hinges, and at 12:25 the whistle that sounded the death knell sounded again with a long blast, and all the doors were opened, and the cell. Dr. Hicks and Warden Crucker were both present and the death warrant was read.

Then the procession came out of the cell. Guiteau marched up with a firm tread, looking to the right and left. He was pale on the gallows.

Dr. Hicks read a short selection, and then opening to a chapter he went closer to Guiteau, who read over to himself in a loud tone of voice, culling out the tenth chapter of Matthew, 28th to 4th verses.

His hands were pinioned behind him, and he had a white handkerchief around his neck in place of collar and cravat. After he had read the Bible he read his last dying prayer on the scaffold.

GUITEAU'S LAST PRAYER.

"Hicks then held before Guiteau the manuscript of his prayer, which he read.

"My dying prayer on the gallows

Father, now I go to Thee and the Saviour. I have finished the work

"I love the Lord with all my soul,

Glory halloo! halloo!

And that is the reason I am going to the

"Glory halloo! halloo! glory halloo! halloo!

I am going to the Lord."

Here his voice failed him and he bowed his head and broke into sobs, but rallied a little and went on with his chant:

"I love the Lord with all my soul,

Glory halloo! halloo! but they have murdered me for it."

"Glory halloo! halloo! glory halloo! halloo!

I am going to the Lord."

Again his feelings overcame him, and he leaned his head on the shoulder of Dr. Hicks and sobbed pitifully.

Still he went on:

"I wonder what I will do when I get to the

"I guess that I will weep no more when I get to the

"Glory halloo! halloo!"

(Raising his voice to the highest pitch that he could command.)

"Glory halloo! halloo! I am with the Lord."

Towards the last his voice reached a piercing pitch and tears rolled down his cheeks.

Then he commenced to cry, and repeated those words many times over and over again. When he had finished he was led to the drop, when after whispering instructions to a deputy he threw his head back, the rope was adjusted and his feet tied. This was at 12:40. Strong then drew the black cap out of his pocket, putting it on.

Guiteau said: "Glory, glory, to the Lord! Ready! in a firm tone, and in a second after the drop fell and he died without a struggle, save a twitch of the foot, at 12:43. The crowd outside heard the drop and cheered wildly.

His body was turned over to his friends and quietly buried Saturday.

An autopsy was held and his brain found to be healthy, although a peculiar condition of the membrane was noticeable. This condition is often seen in the brains of persons never suspected of insanity. He is dead now and sane or insane he has met the reward his crime merited.

We have received a catalogue of the Bowling Green Fair which will be held Sept. 6th and continue four days.

A frightful railroad accident happened to an express train leaving

Long Branch, last Thursday. Six cars were thrown over a bridge by the spreading of the rails, and eight or ten persons killed, and fifty injured. Gen. Grant was on the train and narrowly escaped with slight injuries. The following is a partial list of the killed: E. L. Bradley and C.

Woodruff, of Newark, N. J.; Wm.

R. Garrison, son of Commodore Garrison; Butler, merchant of New York; Geo. W. Demorest and Jas.

E. Mallory, real estate agents.

It is now no longer a matter of conjecture that Col. E. Polk Johnson will be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. Col. Johnson is a candidate for the position and was desire to any right here that the South Kentuckian is for him against the field, no matter who may be in it.

There is no nobler, more honorable or more capable man in Kentucky than Polk Johnson. We know him to be a gentleman and a true Democrat and a man who would be a vast improvement on any one who has held the office of Lieutenant Governor for years. He has a strong following in this country.

The gas company promises to turn on the gas by the dark of the moon.

Mr. H. H. Bryant's separator threshed 1783 bushels of wheat in one day last week.

Some of the new gas lamps have been put up and are quite an improvement on the old oil lamps.

Messrs. Forbes & Gant have entered the contract for building the new depot.

The State Teachers' Association, which was to have met here July 11th, has been postponed until December 10th.

A pleasant little dance was given at Dr. W. G. Whiffee's last Friday evening, at which the young folks enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. Jas. H. Brown has taken a telephone at his store and one at his residence. Mr. E. M. Plack has also become a subscriber and the list has now been increased to thirty-one.

Prof. W. H. Hook, of Church Hill, will take charge of a school at Sadler'sville, Tenn., next fall. The people of the Church Hill neighborhood will regret to give him up.

The Ladies Missionary Society will meet at the Christian church this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The church society of the Christian denomination will meet at Dr. Gled's to-morrow afternoon at the same hour.

The confectionery store of W. C. Elliott, on Court street, was entered by burglars on last Tuesday night and about $50 worth of candies and other things taken. They entered from a back window.

The Asylum base ball club is anxious to play the Athensville club, but as the members of the club can not leave the Asylum, it is not likely that they can get up a match game.

We were requested by postal card to announce last week that Mr. Alex. Clark, prohibition candidate for Appellate Clerk, would speak here this Thursday. We did so but Mr. Clark failed to come to time.

Both of the ice factories broke down last week, and the dealers had to import ice like to supply the home demands. The factories are now in running order again and making serenely a day, but they cannot meet the wholesale demand, and at times can not supply the home wants.

Remember the grand opening ball at Carleton Springs this evening. It will be a very pleasant affair as the crowd promises to be unusually large. Mr. Harper has secured the services of Mr. E. W. Hines, of Lafayette, as clerk during the season and is now preparing for the reception and entertainment of guests. Let everybody go to the ball to-night and help to inaugurate a brilliant season.

A case, the details of which are not fit to be published, was up in the magistrate's court last week, and was continued till next Thursday. It appears to be a case of attempted black-mail, in which a respectable white man made the victim of a negro woman. The trial was continued because the woman failed to appear.
